Welcome and thanks to David Tinoco, our guest organist this morning, while Hyunju is playing at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco.

Please STAND as able, and join in singing,

The Processional Hymn

I Sing the Almighty Power of God

Hymn #398

The Opening Acclamation

† Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;
People His mercy endures for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord your God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these." Mark 12:29-31

A † appears in the margin where you may wish to make the sign of the cross over your body. Making the sign of the cross is a choice left to each worshipper. It is simply a way to engage your entire body (not just your speech and mind) in worship, and physically to signify embracing the blessing of God.

The Collect for Purity

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please STAND, or kneel as able, with the People saying the words in bold,

Like the Prodigal Jesus
We have wasted your love.

Like Nicodemus,
We have crept about in darkness.

Like James and John,
We have slept through others' sorrow.

Like Peter,
We have denied and betrayed you.

Like Pilate,
We have washed our hands of blame.

And yet, as with the woman at the well,
You give us drink in the heat of the day.

As with the man born blind,
You open our eyes.

As with Simon,
You teach us mercy.

As with the disciples,
You wash our feet.

As with the criminal hanging near you,
You promise us paradise.

As with Peter,
You restore us in your love.

Give us, now, Jesus,
the gift of repentance, the grace of forgiveness,
and hearts made ready for Easter's joy.
Amen.

Liturgy for the Whole Church, Susan K Bock

The Absolution

† Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Celebrant: Rev. Peter Huang
Deacon/Preacher: The Very Rev. Paula Vukmanic

Please STAND as able, and join in singing three times.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the readings.

The First Lesson Isaiah 43:16-21

1st Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Thus says the LORD,
who makes a way in the sea,
a path in the mighty waters,
who brings out chariot and horse,
army and warrior;
they lie down, they cannot rise,
they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

Do not remember the former things,
or consider the things of old.
I am about to do a new thing;
now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

The wild animals will honor me,
the jackals and the ostriches;
for I give water in the wilderness,
rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my chosen people,
the people whom I formed for myself
so that they might declare my praise.

1st Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Anglican chant is an treasured tradition in the Episcopal Church. We sing the words of the Psalm on one note until the accent (á), which indicates to move to the next note. Remaining seated, please sing (or read silently) along with us!

The Response

Psalm 126

Hal Hopson

Freedom was like a dréam to us when God set Zion frée;
We laughed, we sang, our voices ráng with shouts of libértý.

The heathen nations round us sáid, "God's gifts to them are góod;"
Yes, God has done great things for ús, we praise him as we shóuld.

Restore our fortunes now, O Lórd, like Negev's waterwáys,
And grant that those who sow in téars may reap with hymns of práise.

Let those who weep as they go óut and take with them good séed,
Bring back in joy such harvest shéaves as may fulfill their néed.

The Second Lesson Philippians 3:4b-14

2nd Reader A Reading from Paul's second Letter to the Philippians.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

2nd Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please STAND, as able, for the reading of the Holy Gospel, and join in singing.

Gospel Procession

Be Still and Know

Iona

The musical score is written on two staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like. The lyrics are: "Be still and know that I am God, and there is none beside me. Be still and know that I am God, and there is none beside me." The score includes a repeat sign at the end.

The Holy Gospel John 12:1-8

† Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair.

The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please join in singing "Be Still and Know" as the Gospel Procession returns.

There will be a moment of silence for reflection following the sermon.

The Very Rev. Paula Vukmanic

Please STAND as able, and join in saying,

The Nicene Creed

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

Please stand for,

The Prayers of the People

Gracious God, in this holy season of Lent, remind us that we are made to connect, to you, to all members of our human family, and to your creation. Receive our prayers as we journey into this season of reflection and growth.

We pray for our church. May religious leaders and all your faithful people embrace your work of reconciliation. Guide us along pathways of reconciling hope. God of mercy, make us new.

We pray for our nation. Help us appreciate the land, liberties and heritage we have received. Protect us from discord, confusion, arrogance, and evil. Anoint with wisdom those to whom we entrust the authority of government. Guide us along pathways of eternal truths. God of mercy, make us new.

We pray for the world. May we come to live as one human family with compassion for all, with dignity for every human being, welcoming the stranger and refugee. Guide us along pathways of unity and hope. God of mercy, make us new.

We pray for our community. Teach us the truth of love and the power of forgiveness. May we lead lives that are peaceful and just, balanced and joyful. Guide us along pathways of healing love. God of mercy, make us new.

We pray for those who serve in the armed and foreign services, and their families, especially Drew Deley, Kelly Hall, Mark Kappelmann, TJ Malzahn, Will Piepenbring, Scott Ruston, Michael Strong, Jonathan Zimmerman and Steve. Strengthen and protect them. Guide them along pathways of protection. God of mercy, make us new.

We pray for the afflicted, the helpless and the homeless, the unemployed and the underemployed. Bless and heal all in need, especially Andrea, Susie Allen, Stephanie Bezner, Howard Dale, Ceri Falk, Amalia Fraker, Mary Louise Gordon, Sally Hill, Jack Lovrich, Marjorie Morris, Bob Pilmer, James and Reiko and Steve Smith, and all those we name to you now...(please add your own prayers either silently or aloud), and empower us to engage your healing presence.

Guide us along pathways of health and wholeness. God of mercy, make us new.

We pray for those killed or injured from acts of terrorism, gun violence, abuse of any kind, from the consequences of hurricanes, earthquakes, fires, floods and other natural disasters and for those who grieve for them. Guide us along pathways of safety. God of mercy, make us new.

We pray for those we love but see no longer. Give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life. We remember before you this day all who have died, especially those we name to you now...

(please add your own prayers either silently or aloud). Guide us along pathways of eternal comfort and strength. God of mercy, make us new.

Celebrant Let us pray together

All God of our Lenten journey and beyond, you have made us to connect with you, with self, with others, with creation and with the world. May we embrace this Lenten theme through your renewing grace. Lead us, Gracious God, to any who need us, for the sake of Jesus who came that we share in his Christ presence with all whom we meet. Help us prepare for a renewal in your risen life within us. We pray this in the power of the Holy Spirit through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

All That I Am

William Himes

*All that I am, all I can be, all that I have, all that is me accept and use, Lord, as you would choose, Lord, right now, today.
Take every passion, every skill; take all my dreams and bend them to your will. My all I give, Lord.
For you I'll live, Lord, come what may.*

*Often I come with my problems and cares, running to you when distressed. But I must bring you the whole of my life.
Lord, I must give you my best.
All that I am...*

*Life has no purpose unless it is yours. Life without you has no goal.
All that fulfills me is doing your will, knowing that you're in control.
All that I am...*

The Offertory Prayers

Celebrant Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation; through your goodness we have this bread and wine to offer, which the earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the Bread of Heaven and the Cup of Salvation.

People Blessed be God forever.

Celebrant Receive, O Lord, all these gifts presented by your holy people for the work of your holy Church.

People Blessed be God forever.

Please remain standing for,
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues. The People read the parts in bold.

Celebrant God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People By your will they were created and have their being.

Celebrant From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By his blood, he reconciled us.
By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

All stand or kneel as the Celebrant continues. The People join in reading the text in bold.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving, We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God of our Mothers Sarah, Leah, Rebekah and Rachel, God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and th Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Communion of the People

All baptized Christians are invited to receive Holy Communion. Please follow the directions of the ushers. Kneeling or standing, each person receives the Bread in the palm of the right hand, eats, and then guides the cup for a sip of the Wine. If you do not wish to receive or are not yet baptized, we encourage you to come forward to receive a blessing. Simply fold your hands across your chest when you come forward. The clergy will carry Communion to anyone in the congregation who is unable to come forward. Please notify an usher if you wish Communion to be brought to you. Gluten-free Communion wafers are available. If you require one of these, simply ask at the Altar rail.

If you have come with a particular prayer concern today, after receiving Communion you may come to the Nason Prayer Chapel to the right of the altar rail where someone will be available to pray with you.

Communion Anthem

Open the Eyes of My Heart

Paul Baloche

*Open the eyes of my heart, Lord. I want to see you. To see you high and lifted up, shining in the light of your glory.
Pour out your power and love, as we sing "Holy, holy, holy."*

Please kneel or STAND, as able

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of compassion, through your Son Jesus Christ you have reconciled your people to yourself. As we follow his example of prayer, fasting, and service may we obey you with willing hearts and serve one another in holy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Let us say together our Mission Statement:

All We welcome everyone to worship God together, to be transformed by the Holy Spirit and each other, and to share the light of Christ in the world. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God give you power to grow in holiness this Lent. May you open your hearts and minds to an amazing mystery, you were made to connect with God, with self, with others, with creation and with the world. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.
