

Ash Wednesday

Wednesday, March 5, 2025 ❖ 7:00 am / 6:00 pm

Celebrant/Preacher: The Rev. Jason Shelby

Deacon: The Rev. Celeste Stump

Welcome to St. Francis!

We are in the penitential season of Lent. The primary focus of Lent is God's invitation to us to love God and one another as God loves us, which is to say, unconditionally. But this invitation is often lost in the haze of our sins; our pride, hypocrisy, envy, anger, infatuation with worldly goods, and fear of people unlike ourselves. In order to fully see God we must admit to our sin, we must acknowledge that which separates us from God. Lent is our time to do this, to focus on the necessity of Christ's sacrifice for our sins, and marvel at God's infinite and unknowable grace for all people. Lent is a somber time of reflection, but it is ultimately a time of joy - the joy of knowing that we are not defined by our sins or failures, but rather, by God's love for us. If you have any questions about the service, please don't hesitate to reach out to our priest, Father Jason, either by leaving a visitor card in the offering plate, or by grabbing his attention after the service.

Please take a moment to silence your cellphone. Thank you.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant      The Lord be with you.

People          And also with you.

Celebrant      Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent: Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Lesson: Isaiah 58:1-12

Reader          A Reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

1 Shout out, do not hold back!

    Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

Announce to my people their rebellion,
    to the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways,
as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God;
they ask of me righteous judgments,
    they delight to draw near to God.

3 "Why do we fast, but you do not see?
    Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?"
Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day,
    and oppress all your workers.

4 Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist.
Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high.

5 Is such the fast that I choose,
    a day to humble oneself?
Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush,
    and to lie in sackcloth and ashes?
Will you call this a fast,
    a day acceptable to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I choose:
    to loose the bonds of injustice,

to undo the thongs of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to break every yoke?
<sup>7</sup>Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover them,
and not to hide yourself from your own kin?
<sup>8</sup>Then your light shall break forth like the dawn,
and your healing shall spring up quickly;
your vindicator shall go before you,
the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.
<sup>9</sup>Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you,
the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, <sup>10</sup>if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places,
and make your bones strong;
and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water,
whose waters never fail.
<sup>12</sup>Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt;
you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
you shall be called the repairer of the breach,
the restorer of streets to live in.

The Response: Psalm 103:8-14

Reader Let us read from Psalm 103 responsively (the People reading the text in bold).

<sup>8</sup>The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
<sup>9</sup>He will not always accuse,
nor will he keep his anger forever.
<sup>10</sup>He does not deal with us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.
<sup>11</sup>For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
<sup>12</sup>as far as the east is from the west,
so far he removes our transgressions from us.
<sup>13</sup>As a father has compassion for his children,
so the LORD has compassion for those who fear him.
<sup>14</sup>For he knows how we were made;
he remembers that we are dust.

The Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 5:20b—6:10

Reader A Reading from Paul's Second letter to the Church in Corinth.

<sup>20b</sup>We entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup>For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

<sup>6:1</sup>As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain.

<sup>2</sup>For he says,

“At an acceptable time I have listened to you,
and on a day of salvation I have helped you.”

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! <sup>3</sup>We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, <sup>4</sup>but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, <sup>5</sup>beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; <sup>6</sup>by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, <sup>7</sup>truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; <sup>8</sup>in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; <sup>9</sup>as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; <sup>10</sup>as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

The Gospel: Matthew 6:1-6, 16-21

Deacon            The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People            Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, <sup>1</sup>“Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>“So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>3</sup>But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, <sup>4</sup>so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>5</sup>“And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>6</sup>But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>16</sup>“And whenever you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so as to show others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>17</sup>But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup>so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

The Sermon

The Rev. Jason Shelby

There will be a moment of silence for reflection following the sermon.

The Lenten Invitation

Celebrant        Dear People of God: The first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord’s passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting. This season of Lent provided a time in which converts to the faith were prepared for Holy Baptism. It was also a time when those who, because of notorious sins, had been separated from the body of the faithful were reconciled by penitence and forgiveness, and restored to the fellowship of the Church. Thereby, the whole congregation was put in mind of the message of pardon and absolution set forth in the Gospel of our Savior, and of the need which all Christians continually have to renew their repentance and faith.

I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word. And, to make a right beginning of repentance, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now kneel before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

The Blessing of the Ashes

Celebrant Almighty God, you have created us out of the dust of the earth: Grant that these ashes may be to us a sign of our mortality and penitence, that we may remember that it is only by your gracious gift that we are given everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Please come forward for the imposition of ashes.

Psalm 51

Reader <sup>1</sup>Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; * in your great compassion blot out my offenses.
<sup>2</sup>Wash me through and through from my wickedness * and cleanse me from my sin.
<sup>3</sup>For I know my transgressions, * and my sin is ever before me.
<sup>4</sup>Against you only have I sinned *
and done what is evil in your sight.
<sup>5</sup>And so you are justified when you speak *
and upright in your judgment.
<sup>6</sup>Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
a sinner from my mother's womb.
<sup>7</sup>For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.
<sup>8</sup>Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.
<sup>9</sup>Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the body you have broken may rejoice.
<sup>10</sup>Hide your face from my sins *
and blot out all my iniquities.
<sup>11</sup>Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.
<sup>12</sup>Cast me not away from your presence *
and take not your holy Spirit from me.
<sup>13</sup>Give me the joy of your saving help again *
and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.
<sup>14</sup>I shall teach your ways to the wicked, * and sinners shall return to you.
<sup>15</sup>Deliver me from death, O God, *
and my tongue shall sing of your righteousness,
O God of my salvation.
<sup>16</sup>Open my lips, O Lord, *
and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.
<sup>17</sup>Had you desired it, I would have offered sacrifice, * but you take no delight in burnt-offerings.
<sup>18</sup>The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; *
a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

Please kneel or sit as able.

The Litany of Penitence

- All*           Most holy and merciful Father: We confess to you and to one another, and to the whole communion of saints in heaven and on earth, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word, and deed; by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
- Celebrant*    We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.
- All*           Have mercy on us, Lord.
- Celebrant*    We have been deaf to your call to serve, as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.
- All*           Have mercy on us, Lord.
- Celebrant*    We confess to you, Lord, all our past unfaithfulness: the pride, hypocrisy, and impatience of our lives,
- All*           We confess to you, Lord.
- Celebrant*    Our self-indulgent appetites and ways, and our exploitation of other people,
- All*           We confess to you, Lord.
- Celebrant*    Our anger at our own frustration, and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,
- All*           We confess to you, Lord.
- Celebrant*    Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in daily life and work,
- All*           We confess to you, Lord.
- Celebrant*    Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,
- All*           We confess to you, Lord.
- Celebrant*    Accept our repentance, Lord, for the wrongs we have done: for our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,
- All*           Accept our repentance, Lord.
- Celebrant*    For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,
- All*           Accept our repentance, Lord.
- Celebrant*    For our waste and pollution of your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us,
- All*           Accept our repentance, Lord.
- Celebrant*    Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us;
- All*           Favorably hear us, for your mercy is great.
- Celebrant*    Accomplish in us the work of your salvation,

All            That we may show forth your glory in the world.

Celebrant    By the cross and passion of your Son our Lord,

All            Bring us with all your saints to the joy of his resurrection.

Celebrant    Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desires not the death of sinners, but rather that they may turn from their wickedness and live, has given power and commandment to his ministers to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins. He pardons and absolves all those who truly repent, and with sincere hearts believe his holy Gospel.

Therefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do on this day, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand as able.

The 7:00 am service concludes here; the priest and people exit the church in silence.

The Peace

Celebrant    The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People        And also with you.

Ministers and People exchange signs of peace in the name of the Lord.

Please be seated.

The Welcome and Announcements

Please stand as able.

The Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer D)

Celebrant    The Lord be with you.

People        And also with you.

Celebrant    Lift up your hearts.

People        We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant    Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People        It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we say,

All            Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or stand as able as the Celebrant continues.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

All            We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you,
Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, with St. Francis and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

The Invitation

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God, take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Communion of the People

All are invited to receive Holy Communion. Please follow the directions of the ushers. If you do not wish to receive, we encourage you to come forward to receive a blessing. Simply fold your hands across your chest when you come forward. The clergy will carry Communion to anyone in the congregation who is unable to come forward. Please notify an usher if you wish Communion to be brought to you. Gluten-free Communion wafers are available. If you require one of these, simply ask.

Please kneel or stand as able as able.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Prayer of St. Francis

Celebrant Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

People Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant And, the blessing of God Almighty, ✚ The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit be with you always.

All Amen.

The Sending Forth

Celebrant Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

All Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able and join in singing.
